In the WEEKLY REPORTER, cases in all the Courts are reported as speedily as possible, by Barristers; so that, instead of a mere note of a decision, the practitioner has before him a full report of a case, decided, it may be, only a few days before.

The ANNUAL DIGEST contains a reference to every report which has appeared of any case decided during the year, and enables the practitioner to see the effect of all the decisions on any particular branch of law during the year.

The STATUTES of practical utility are given with the WEEKLY REPORTER.

Annual Subscription WEEKLY REPORTER, 52s., post-free, when paid in advance. A New Volume will commence the first week in November.

Office—52, CAREY STREET, W.C.

* * The WEEKLY REPORTER can be ordered from any date, and a proportionate reduction will be made in the subscription up to the end of the current volume.

WILL BE READY NOVEMBER 1st, PRICE 10s. 6d.

Is ready at every Library, in 3 vols., crown 8vo.

Vanity Fair.
"The reader will follow with eager interest this touching romance."

Daily Telegraph.
"The personages in this book are drawn with consummate power, and there have been few novels of recent years more distinguished by conscientious care and elaboration in the treatment of a worthy subject."

Athenæum.
"A novel of a high order of merit . . . one of the best fictions of the day."

Home News.
"An admirably written and well-conceived novel. Mr. Wingfield has exercised rare discrimination; he has not only read, but assimilated; not only drawn, but created."

NEW NOVEL AT ALL LIBRARIES.

MISS ETHEL COXON'S
"MONSIEUR LOVE."

2 vols., crown 8vo.

"A new aspirant for literary fame has appeared on the scene and scored a decided success. Miss Coxon has written a charming novel. The plot, style and diction, and pathos have all a freshness and originality we rarely meet with. We cordially recommend 'Monsieur Love.'"

NEW NOVEL BY THE AUTHOR OF "SUCCESS, AND HOW HE WON IT," &c.

ERNST WERNER'S POPULAR NOVEL,
"NO SURRENDER."

In 3 vols., crown 8vo.

Graphic.
"Herr Werner by this novel has established his claim to rank with those very few writers of fiction whose works are, or should be, matters of interest to all readers of cultivation throughout Europe."

Vanity Fair.
"No Surrender" deserves the very warmest commendation, and it is so thoroughly well written that the reader who puts it down may be perfectly satisfied with it, and yet not know how clever it is; but if it be compared with the numberless other attempts at novel writing the difference becomes clear enough."

On Monday next will be ready at all Libraries a new novel, entitled
